MOVIES

Is Bluey ready for the movies?

1

Dad, Bluey and Bingo arrive at the movies. "Is there going to be thunder in the movie?" asks Bluey. "Maybe," says Dad.

"Are you sure you're ready for movies, Bluey? You're a bit of a sensitive kid," says Dad. "Hmm ... I'm ready," decides Bluey. "Just checking," says Dad. "Let's go get some tickets."

2

"Can you ask him if there's any scary bits?" says Bluey. "Hey, are there any scary bits in this?" asks Dad. "Um, there's a big thunderstorm bit at the end. That might be scary for some kids," says the ticket seller. Bluey's a bit worried that she might be 'some kids'. "Look, we can leave whenever you want. Just say the word," says Dad.

3

Bluey's got her eyes covered, but the movie hasn't started yet!

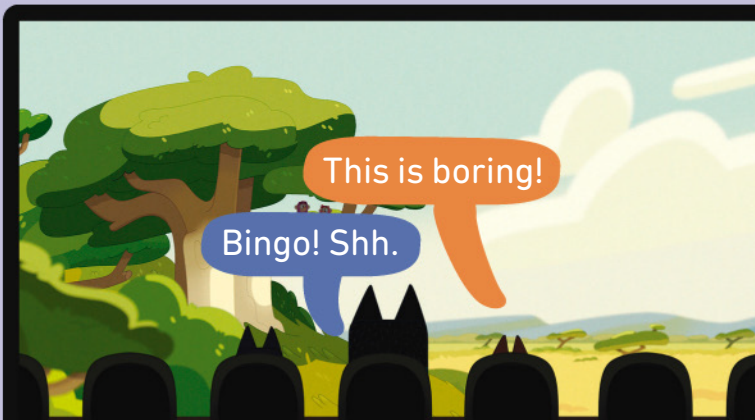

When they sit down, Bingo's chair flips up and she slips down the back!

4

The movie starts – Chunky Chimp invents a bike to explore the groundlands. "Is this the storm bit?" Bluey asks. "Nah, it's just some monkeys in a tree," Dad replies.

5

Bingo's chair flips up again and she spills her popcorn.

"Dad, am I different like Chunky is?" asks Bluey, while they buy Bingo more popcorn. "Huh, ah yeah, well, ah, no," Dad answers while digging through his wallet.

"By the end of the movie, everyone will like that the monkey was different," Dad tells her. As they head back into the cinema, Bluey says, "I'm not going to be different any more. I'm ready for movies, just like everyone else."

6

They sit down in their seats. "Can I sit over there?" Bingo points to another seat. "No mate, we're sitting here," says Dad.

7

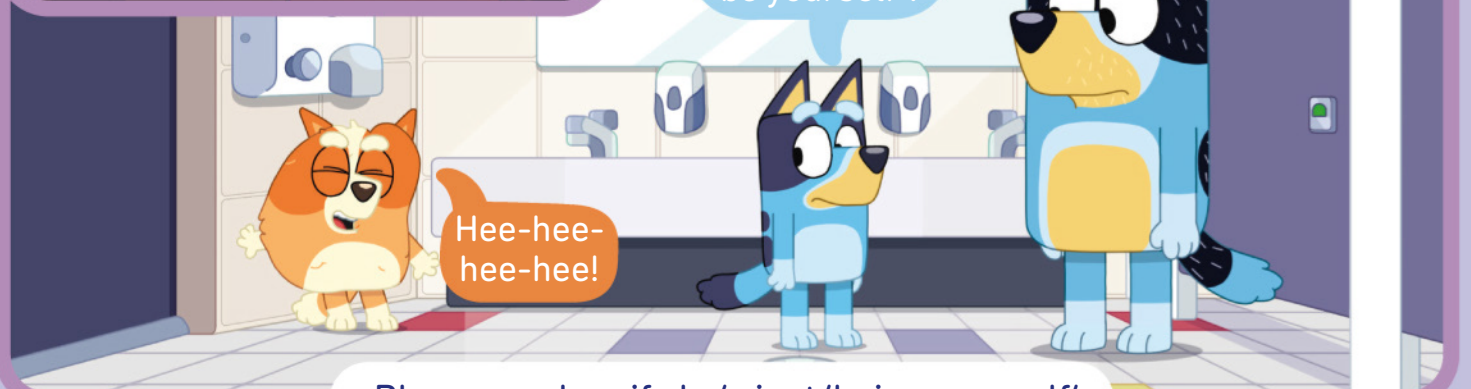

"Dad, look. I'm watching!" says Bluey with her eyes open. "Well done, Bluey," says Dad. But when he turns around, Bingo has disappeared! He chases after her.

Bluey keeps watching the movie. Chew B'Deube is talking to Chunky...

Then...

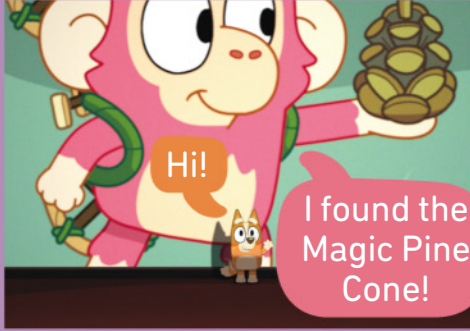

Bluey wonders if she's just 'being yourself'.

6

8

When they're back in the cinema, Bluey says, "Well, I understand what 'just be yourself' means, because I'm ready for movies!" But it's the thunderstorm bit! "Eep! Dad, I want to go now," says Bluey. But Bingo has run off again!

9

"Bluey! Help me with your sister!" says Dad, chasing Bingo. Bluey has her hands over her eyes and is bumping into everything. "Open your eyes and help me!" yells Dad. "But the scary bit's on," says Bluey. While Dad's chasing Bingo, Chunky is speeding down a steep hill. He needs to save the village!

Then Bluey and Chunky both say...

10

Bluey opens her eyes and watches the movie again.

11

The thunderstorm is over, and Bluey wants to stay! But Bingo doesn't. "What do I do?" asks Bingo. "You know what, Bingo? Just be yourself," smiles Dad.

Bluey realises she needs to be brave, just like Chunky Chimp. Chunky flies, and Bluey catches Bingo! Everyone cheers!

Make your own HAMMERBARN CHECKOUT

YOU WILL NEED:

- different sized boxes & cardboard rolls
- paints, tape, string, cardboard & scissors
- a grown-up to help

1 Grab a box for your counter base and stick on strips of cardboard to make the sides and top. Hang the bunting between the strips.

2 Make shelves by sticking 3 boxes together and snipping out the fronts. Stick your goods for sale to cardboard rolls and display them. Put up the staff poster and pop on your name badge.

TOP TIP

Make a till, too! Find a shallow box or shoebox lid and paint it black. Snip out the till below and stick it to thick cardboard. Fold it along the dotted line so the top bit stands up and stick it to your box. Give your customer their bank card and get ready to sell some stuff – doot!

You could say:

"AISLE 300. LEFT AT THE FAKE GRASS. IF YOU HIT A FLAMINGO, YOU'VE GONE TOO FAR."
